

New Covenant Literal Application Code (NCLA)

Each Mitzvah in this compilation includes a New Covenant Literal Application Code (abbreviated NCLA) that consists of three parts. The first part specifies Jew, K'rov Yisrael, or Gentile. The second part specifies Male, or Female. The third part specifies one of seven possible levels of literal compliance that applies to each. The NCLA Code accompanying each Mitzvah reflects the author's interpretive opinion, and is provided for the reader's prayerful consideration only.

The keys to the NCLA Code are as follows:

Person Categories

JM Jewish male

JF Jewish female

KM K'rov Yisrael male

KF K'rov Yisrael female

GM Gentile male

GF Gentile female

Literal Application Categories

m Literal compliance mandated

r Literal compliance recommended

o Literal compliance optional / allowable

n Literal compliance not generally recommended

u Literal compliance unauthorized

p Literal compliance prohibited

i Literal compliance not applicable or impossible

Example:

A Mitzvah followed by JMm JFm KMo KFo GMn GFn, means that literal compliance of the Mitzvah is mandatory for Jewish males and females, is optional for K'rov Yisrael males and females, and is not generally recommended for other Gentiles.
